

Six Canyon FFA Boys Get Lone Star Degrees

Canyon Future Farmers of American Chapter has six brand new Lone Star Farmers. Henry Meyer, Wes Bourn, Jerry Ham, Noel Howard and Orville Ladehoff received the state degree at a recent state FFA convention in Dallas.

Accompanying the boys to the convention was Leon Bagwell, vocational agriculture instructor at Canyon High School. Ed Dwyer, also a vocational agriculture instructor here, did not make the trip.

Other boys attending were Joe Triplett and Steve Hill.

All boys except young Ladehoff will be seniors next fall. Ladehoff was graduated from high school last spring.

Meyer is an excellent student, according to his instructors. He is chapter vice-president and was a member of the chapter conducting and land judging teams last year.

Wes Bourn also is a chapter vice-president. He was a member of the chapter conducting and dairy cattle judging teams.

Jerry Ham was a member of the chapter conducting and dairy cattle judging teams. Noel Howard was a member of the chapter radio broadcasting team and is a past secretary of the chapter.

Instructors praised Ladehoff highly. "He'll make one of the best farmers in this community," declared Bagwell. "He's one of the hardest working boys I know and he had a lot of ability."

To win Lone Star degrees the boys submitted complete records of their projects undertaken throughout their high school years.

Canyon FFA chapter received the State and National Chapter Contest Award. It was presented by Teddy Carruth of Tulsa,

County Now Two-Party As GOP Primary Is Set

Two parties in Randall County became a reality this week as Neal Allen, county Republican chairman, announced that a Republican primary would be held next spring.

May 5, 1962 is the date set for the first Republican primary in the history of the county.

Allen notified Randall County officials that a primary definitely would be held.

The GOP chairman told the News Tuesday his party would field as many candidates as possible for local offices. He indicated that candidates will be hand picked by members of the county GOP committee.

The committee is made up of various precinct chairmen. He said the committee will support only qualified candidates and the committee will make the decision on whether a candidate is qualified.

"We're going to try to win on qualifications," Allen declared.

He said his group cannot keep anyone from running but that if the committee does not deem a candidate qualified then that candidate, even if nominated in the Republican primary, will have to run without the support of the committee.

Allen said several people already have expressed desire to run for local offices on the GOP ticket in this county.

Precinct chairmen making up the county committee include Leroy Hutton, Allen M. Beene, Royce Currie, Jack Russell, Mrs. D. C. Dodge, John Mayes, and Gordon D. Williams, all of Amarillo, and E. W. Glenn and E. E. Plank, both of Canyon.

Controversial voting usually finds Jones paired with C. Y. Johnson, precinct 4, and Dowlen paired with Clarence Beckman, precinct 2.

A Johnson motion to use the money for paving in his precinct died for the lack of a second as did a motion by Beckman to use the money in precinct 2.

Jones then moved that the funds provided by the state be used in paving as much as possible of an extension of Pullman Switch Road into the Rim Drive Community. His motion was seconded by Dowlen.

For a moment it appeared that Judge Wayland Angel would be forced to cast the tie breaker. Then Beckman voted for the Jones Proposal and Rim Drive had its pavement.

Heavy damage was done to the Steakhouse Cafe early Wednesday morning as flames roared through the kitchen of the establishment.

Firechief Bill Sternberg said damage was heavy all over the cafe but heaviest in the kitchen area where the blaze appears to have started.

The alarm was turned in about 1:30 o'clock in the morning by Jim Jennings who happened to be passing by. He called authorities when he noticed flames shooting up from the roof of the cafe.

Sternberg said the flames Jennings saw probably were shooting up through the vent above the stove in the kitchen.

The cafe is operated by Max and Fred Gaines. The building belongs to Bill Griffin.

THURSDAY about midnight, the O.W. Parker, Jr., family was awakened suddenly when a bolt of lightning struck a large elm tree at their residence, 1200 Sixth Avenue. This occurred during a rain storm. Parker stated that the lightning first hit the top of the tree, breaking small limbs, and progressed down the trunk ripping bark off in a wide strip. Then it seemed to ground, went under the tree, and came up on the other side of the tree causing what appeared as a small explosion.

Regular training began this morning in earnest. Classes started just after a 6:30 AM breakfast. Arriving Sunday just after noon the Canyon group spent the remainder of the first day unpacking and readjusting equipment for the few weeks of training.

Monday was to be spent in garrison and extensive field maneuvers were to begin Tuesday morning. First Lt. Don Briggs, commanding officer of the Canyon platoon, is expecting one of the unit's best summer camps.

Scheduled this year are gunner's examinations, firing sessions with the giant mortar and night combat problems.

Field problems are scheduled to last the first week through Friday night. At that time the platoon will return to garrison, located some 6 miles south of Gatesville, and prepare for the governor's parade.

After a brief weekend break from Saturday noon until 4 PM Sunday, the Canyon unit will return to the field for further training. Canyon soldiers are expecting to return home Sunday, August 6, by chartered bus. They should arrive just after noon that day.

Seven Charged As Party Aftermath

Dowlen Teams With Jones In Historic County Vote

Randall County history was made Monday when a South Randall County commissioner gave his vote to a North Randall County commissioner to pave a farm to market road in the northeast part of the county.

Glenn Dowlen, precinct 3, voted with B.R. Jones, precinct 1, to use $70,000.00 of state farm to market road funds for the benefit of the Rim Drive community in the northeast portion of the county.

Controversial voting usually finds Jones paired with C. Y. Johnson, precinct 4, and Dowlen paired with Clarence Beckman, precinct 2.

Charges of contributing to delinquency of juveniles may be filed against several prominent Amarillo people as an outgrowth of a three-day party in South Amarillo early this month.

Seven young adults, all from Amarillo, have been charged with disturbing the peace in connection with the whing ding.

Criminal District Attorney A.W. Lair said misdemeanor charges have been filed against Robert F. Davis, 19 years old; Hackney E. Long, 20; James Edgar Wilson, 20; Jimmy Cox, 19; Theodore Joy Wagner, 17; Paul Edwin Setzler, 19; and Carol Hicks, 17.

Lair said at least 30 youngsters, many of them, representing socially prominent Amarillo families, were involved in the party from which charges stemmed. He said the Glen Brosier home at 3514 Patterson in palatial Olson Park was wrecked during the three days of revelry.

One of the boys involved, Theodore Wagner, is a brother of Mrs. Brosier, Lair reported.

The young people are charged with the use of loud and vociferous language and otherwise disturbing the neighborhood.

Brosier signed the complaint charging the seven young people, including his brother-in-law. Authorities said the Brosiers went to Dallas leaving young Wagner, who had made his home with them, behind.

Neighbors complained to Brosier's relatives. The relatives called Brosier who boarded a plane for Amarillo as soon as he heard about the goings on at his home.

The party is alleged to have started June 29 and to have been brought to a halt by city police about midnight July 1.

The expensive Brosier home was a shambles when police arrived to find the place stacked with broken glass and liquor bottles. The prosecuting attorney has in his possession several pictures alleged to have been taken of rubble at the Brosier home.

Committee Says Water, Sewer

Rates Static

No possibility of lowering water and sewer rates was seen by a special committee which recently completed a study of these facilities.

The committee was made up of Charlie Donnell, chairman, and Levi Cole, Paul Lindsey, Virgil Henson and H. R. Fulton.

"The committee could not recommend any changes at this time because only four months have elapsed in this fiscal year and taxes, already slightly high, will not carry the burden of city services and bonded debt without additional revenue from water, sewer and trash pick-up charges," the report said.

"In view of the city's inability to vote more bonds and its sewage disposal plant already at capacity," the report continued, "recommendations are to start setting up a special sinking fund each year for enlarging the sewage disposal plant."

The committee recommended that the city commission take steps to eliminate inequities in trash and sewer charges arising from several rental units using the same sewage connection and the same trash disposal facilities.

"To keep these inequities from arising, it is further recommended that each new rental unit be provided with separate meters so that the full burden (of such services) will not fall on the tax payer," the report said.

Guardsmen Undisturbed By Possibility of Call

FROM SOME WHERE ON COPPERHEAD CREEK JULY 24

(By Bob Kerr)

Though an undefinable feeling of waiting is in the air here, troops in the 36th Division are not talking about the mobilization decision which will be made by the President tomorrow evening.

Any talk of the proposed active duty for the Texas division has so far been in a joking manner. When the Canyon group arrived at this central Texas reservation signs were waiting: "Welcome to the deep freeze" and Berlin This Way."

Regular training began this morning in earnest. Classes started just after a 6:30 AM breakfast. Arriving Sunday just after noon the Canyon group spent the remainder of the first day unpacking and readjusting equipment for the few weeks of training.

Monday was to be spent in garrison and extensive field maneuvers were to begin Tuesday morning. First Lt. Don Briggs, commanding officer of the Canyon platoon, is expecting one of the unit's best summer camps.

Final Plans Laid For Annual Roundup Rodeo

Plans are shaping up for the annual Randall County Roundup Rodeo to be staged here the latter part of next week.

A parade made up of sheriff's posses and riding clubs from all over the area will roll down Canyon's streets at 4 o'clock the afternoon of Aug. 4.

Invitations have been extended to car and implement dealers to parade their new wares. The Canyon Fire Department has been asked to join in the parade with both its old and new trucks. Anyone else with something interesting to put in the parade will be welcome.

From 5 o'clock until 7 the same afternoon Walter Jayton will have his barbecue wagon on the square to serve barbecue at $1.25 a plate. Tickets are available from members of all Canyon civic clubs as well as from members of the Chamber of Commerce and Randall County Sheriff's Posse.

Clark Jarnagin, with the Sheriff's Posse, said it would be helpful to have as many tickets sold in advance as possible. He explained that the caterer must be supplied with an estimate of the number to be served.

At 8 o'clock that evening the first performance of the Randall Roundup Rodeo will be held at the arena in east Canyon.

In addition to regular rodeo events, the annual calf scramble will be held for children 13 years old and younger.

At 5 o'clock the following afternoon a program will be held on the square for old settlers of Randall County. From 5 until 7 there will be a pancake supper at the American Legion Hall. Those holding advance tickets will not have to wait in line.

At 8 o'clock the final performance of the rodeo will be staged.

The rodeo and old settlers reunion was begun last year as a project of the Randall County Sheriff's Posse. Due to interest and the magnitude of the undertaking, it has become a community project sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary, and Jaycees as well as the Sheriff's Posse.

Chain Reaction Damages Four Autos Tuesday

A chain reaction accident on the west side of the square in downtown Canyon Tuesday afternoon damaged four cars and left the only driver involved unharmed to put it mildly.

A car driven by Mrs. Lucille Hutchins struck a parked car belonging to Randall Motor Company. After that Mrs. Hutchins apparently became excited and her auto hit another parked car belonging to Jack Swartzell. The Swartzell car in turn hit another auto belonging to Earl Tingle of Amarillo.

The parked cars were knocked to the sidewalk. All the parked cars were vacant at the time. Only minor damage was done. Investigating city police reported.

Canyon Building Soars As New Streets Open

New streets, new homes and new additions spell out progress at mid-year in Canyon.

As of last Saturday, building in Canyon came to $748,783.00 for the year. City manager Bill York said construction included 53 new homes, 4 commercial buildings and 40 additions to existing structures.

Even as city hall told of building approaching the three-quarter million mark, Avert Lair announced the opening of Hidden Valley Addition to Canyon at the southern edge of town.

SEVEN CHARGED
"We got those after the place had been partially cleaned up," Lair declared. "A bob tailed truck load of beer bottles, liquor bottles and rubbish were still on the premises."
Lair said bottles had been smashed against walls, liquor poured on expensive carpets and the ceiling of the home pushed in.
He said lighted cigarettes and general refuse had been thrown on the floor. He said the youngsters involved apparently had eaten all over the house discarding garbage on the floors.
The telephone had been ripped from the wall and the bedding in the bedrooms ripped apart. Children's toys had been destroyed. Legs and arms were torn from a child's teddy bear. Lawns in the neighborhood were damaged when automobiles were driven across them.

LEADERS IN SERVICE

MYERS FARM EQUIPMENT

Lair said one boy was in the attic, one under the bed, four youngsters in a shower stall and one under a car in front of the house when police arrived.
The party was subject of a Randall County grand jury inquiry Monday but no action was taken.
Lair talked to the group and several parents in the district court room here.
He administered a severe lecture to the parents and held forth the possibility that some of them may face charges of contributing to the delinquency of juveniles. He said if any such charges were filed they would stem from the parents not having their offspring under control.
"Some of those kids were over there three days and the parents didn't even know it," he declared.
Lair pulled out all the stops as he talked to the group.
"It has come back to me that I had better go easy," he asserted bluntly, "but I want to say right here that financial standing doesn't have a thing to do with law enforcement in Randall County."
"We're going to stop this one way or another."
Lair said the case still is under investigation and more charges may be filed at a later date.
Mr. and Mrs. James B. Johnson and children of Blytheville, Arkansas, have visited in Canyon with friends during the past week. Mr. Johnson formerly was education and music director at the First Baptist Church.

CHS Band Will Begin Practice

Anyone who was not in one of the bands last year, and who wants to be a member of the High School band this fall, is asked to see, or call, Mr. Demus, as soon as possible.
Patricia and Gregory Lambert of San Antonio arrived Sunday by bus to visit in the homes of their grandmothers, Mrs. Mattie Bourn and Mrs. R.A. Burrus. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter C. Lambert. Mrs. Lambert will be remembered as the former Sue Jennings.

Mrs. Mitchell Jones has returned from Topeka, Kansas, where she has been visiting in the home of her son, Dr. Marshall Jones and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul White and daughters, Carole and Kathryn visited in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J.A. Hill over the weekend. They are from Port Arthur, and Mrs. White is a niece of Mrs. Hill.

Lair said two houses will be constructed as a starter in that area.
York said building activity has levelled off here after a big boom in March and April. In the meantime, a two-pronged pavement development has begun.

Repair work is being done on 44 blocks of existing roadway in the city. This is comprised of a layer of asphalt followed by a layer of rock. This is in the form of maintenance with holes in streets being patches where needed. Contract was awarded to Parker Brothers of Hereford whose bid was $6,375.00 which was low of our bids submitted.
"This is the ideal time of the year for this type of work," the city manager declared. "The asphalt will bleed through and the rock will sink leaving a black topped road."

York said a few additional blocks may be repaired.
The second portion of the program includes some 19 blocks of pavement, curb and gutter. About seven blocks of new street are being opened.
Three blocks of new street are being opened in Pioneer Estates addition at the eastern outskirts of town and four more are being opened in the Hidden Valley Addition.

Repair of existing streets is born by the city. Cost of new pavement, curb and gutter is born by owners of adjacent property.

Cost of 37-foot width street is $3.62 per linear foot for curb and gutter and paving. Sub-contractor for curb and gutter is Calsoe Contractors of Amarillo.

York said many people are requesting curb and gutter where streets already are paved with strip pavement. This runs $1.30 per linear foot. The city stands the expense of tying in pavement to this type of curb and gutter. The property owner must bear the expense of tying in drive ways and walks behind the curb and gutter.

To qualify for this type of curb and gutter property must abut existing pavement, the city manager reported.

Lad Sought In Car Theft

A 16-year-old boy is being sought in connection with the theft Saturday of an automobile belonging to Mrs. Carl Heizer.
Mrs. Heizer told investigating officers she loaned the car to the boy to go to the post office. The youngster had roomed with Mrs. Heizer.
The boy is believed to have headed for Illinois.

Jeanne Whinnery is stationed at Fort McClellan, Alabama, as a member of the Women's Army Corps. She will be there for eight weeks basic training. She is the daughter of John Whinnery of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Parker and son, Jim, have returned from a vacation trip to Colorado Springs, and a visit with relatives in Denver, Colorado. They were in a snow storm while on top of Pike's Peak.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cox and children, George, Barry and Susie, and Jimmy Cabe have returned from a vacation and fishing trip to Colorado. George Cox and Jimmy Cabe have spent the past two weeks at Camp Blue Haven, out from Las Vegas, New Mexico.

Amarillo Man Nabbed On Gun Complaint Here

Delbert L. Strayhorn, 29 years old, Amarillo, has been charged with carrying prohibited weapons.

Strayhorn was arrested Saturday night in the vicinity of the Cowboy Cafe after a call to police by a suspicious citizen.

Officer Ray Reynolds confiscated two pistols from a car at the time Strayhorn was arrested. The Amarillo man entered a plea of not guilty in Judge Wayland Angel's county court and is free on a $1,000.00 bond.

Homer Fort of Melbourne, Arkansas, visited for several days last week in the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Hammons.

Mr. and Mrs. Burney Slack spent several days last week vacationing at the Baptist Assembly at Gfiorieta, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. T.S. Stevenson, Sr., and granddaughter, Judy, have returned from Scottsdale, Arizona, where they visited with their daughter, Mrs. Neil Jennings, and family.

DOWLEN TEAMED
The pavement will start at the intersection of Pullman Switch and the farm to market road running from South Washington to Claude.
The new pavement will run from that point two miles south, thence east one mile, thence south a mile, east another mile, south two miles and then east two and a half miles. The two and a half miles of pavement parallels Palo Duro Canyon's rim at a distance of about a half mile.

Snake Tries Bath At Rogers Home

While the trend is toward suburb life, there are still a few critters who dream of living in town. At least that's the opinion a bull snake left Thursday afternoon.
The snake even went so far to try out a bath tub.
The snake was first spotted by Ronald Davis as it crawled across the 1000 block of 8th Avenue. Davis, a photographer for the Canyon News stopped and told people living in the area he saw the snake and a search started.

Lasting only a few minutes, the search was given up.
But not long afterward the villain was located--in a bath tub at the Delbert Rogers residence.

Earl Crump came to the rescue, caught and killed the snake.

Sheriff Posse Play Day Held

A good turnout was reported Sunday for the Randall County Sheriff's Posse play day held at the rodeo arena in east Canyon.

In the keyhole race Bill Hardaway won in the pee wee division; Jill Jarnagin, junior; and JoZack Byrd, senior division.

A team made up of Barbara Kirkman, Ben Byrd and Craig Parker won the pee wee baton race. Jill Jarnagin, Linda Allen and Sherry Kirkman teamed to win the junior division. C.J. Kirkman, John Hardaway and JoZack Byrd was the winning team in the senior division.
Ben Byrd won the pee wee division in the cloverleaf barrel race; Bill Jarnagin, junior; and Clark Jarnagin, senior division.

Jimmy McBroom, pee wee, was first in the flag race; Jan Jarnagin, junior; and Archie Dean Davis, senior. Craig Parker won the pee wee division of the barrel bending event; Jan Jarnagin, junior; and John Hardaway, senior.

Commissioner Johnson, in whose precinct Highway Engineer Chilli Smith had recommended that the paving be done, said the site of the paving would depend largely on the engineer's proposal.
The court adjourned for lunch. Upshaw and some of his group talked to Engineer Smith. They returned to the court shortly after noon to report that Smith had said site of the paving was up to the commissioners court.
In the meantime, Beckman had made a count of school children along the road and he proposed paving in his community. He reported that the road would serve 29 such children.
"You've got me beat by one," he told Upshaw.
Johnson and Beckman made motions which died for lack of seconds.
Jones then moved for the paving in the Rim Community. "I feel there is more need out there," said Dowlen in seconding Jones' motion. There was a moment's hesitation after the vote was called then Beckman gave it his vote to break what might have been a tie.
At this point some 25 members of the Rim Drive Delegation broke into a cheer and began shaking hands with members of the court.
In other business, the court awarded a contract for flame proofing wood in the court house to Texas Chemical Flameproofing Company of Amarillo. The job will cost the county $1,440.00.

WT Music Camp Slates Final Concert Here

A new programming schedule will be tried Friday when some 350 musicians will be presented in the West Texas State Music Camp's final concert.

"We are staggering the program so more people can attend," said camp director Dr. Ted Crager.

The concert will begin at 4 p.m. in the Fine Arts Building theater with the junior high, blue concert, and red concert bands performing. Next will come the twirling exhibition at 6:30 on the same stage.

The final offering will start at 7:30 when the music camp choir and symphonic band will perform.

was attached to a crown of pearls, and she carried a lace covered white Bible topped with an orchid.

Mary Ann Elliott, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Mabry Joe Brock, Lubbock, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and John Stone, Haskell, was groomsmen.

Hilltop Views

BY DR. J. A. HILL

In her syndicated column in The Amarillo News Sylvia Porter complains that our retirement system is not getting the job done; that money, while necessary and helpful, fails to reach some to the very serious problems of senior citizens; and that recent Congressional legislation will aggravate rather than improve the situation. Among other significant statements she says that "a compulsory retirement age of 65 is already obsolete."

Miss Porter thinks that the recent action of Congress in lowering retirement age, under certain conditions, to 62 tends to make bad matters worse. It increases the number of unemployed people at a time when the life span is growing longer. It adds to the burden of government costs at a time when taxes are already heavy and therefore increases the burden of those who must pay the bill through productive labor. She thinks it would be more sensible to raise rather than lower the age of retirement.

One of the most significant results of the government's compulsory retirement system is the adoption of the idea by business establishments--particularly large business. This development has had at least four bad effects: (1) It has shifted responsibility from private to public agencies in a vast segment of the business world, thus enlarging and further centralizing government functions. (2) It has discouraged thrift, a basic concept in the history of this country. Too general is the feeling among capable, energetic, and promising young people that there is no advantage in being economical and saving for a rainy day--"the government will take care of me when I am old. I'll eat, drink, and be merry today." (3) Society is deprived of the services of millions of experienced, informed, industrious and capable citizens who are put upon the shelf to rust out. They are shifted from the assets to the liabilities side of the ledger simply because they have had a 65th birthday.

This is tragedy, both for the individual and for society. One who has given himself to useful living and hard work until he is 65 years old cannot suddenly face about and sit down by the side of the road or on the stool of do-nothing, to watch the world go by. What is more, society cannot afford to lose his services. Surely one who has lived 65 years must know something for certain or be able to do something that the world needs.

(4) The retirement policy has made millions of good citizens unhappy because time hangs heavy on their hands. "I would rather be sick than idle," said an ancient philosopher and he has multitudes of counter-parts in the U.S. today. The sense of uselessness and loneliness depresses self-respecting old people, causes spiritual deterioration and sometimes hastens ill health and even death.

Do not misunderstand me. I am not advocating abandonment of the retirement system. Its motive is humanitarian, and surely there is some way to eliminate some of its most serious defects without impairing its usefulness. The substitution of statesmanship for politics in dealing with it would be helpful. The continued use of Senior citizens in both private and public services in and to communities would also help. Those approaching retirement age should definitely prepare themselves to meet the old age crisis when it comes.

Finally, if I may speak for myself, I should say that these reflections do not grow out of any unhappy experiences of my own. I thank my Creator every day that He has allowed my lines to fall in pleasant places. My country, my state, and my friends and neighbors wherever they are have been and now are good to me. I shall cherish them all to the end of my conscious moments.

The company's office is located at Randall Motor Company. Its 24-hour phone is listed with LaGrone Funeral Chapel. The company's Beech Bonanza is located a mile east of Ralph Switch and already has made two trips into Colorado as a flying ambulance.

The plane is equipped for night flying and has oxygen equipment.

He is a licensed commercial instructor for multi-engine craft and for instrument flying. Charter flights will be another sideline of the company. Gillham is interested in organizing a flying club in Canyon with an eye to opening a local air port.

Patricia Huff of Fort Worth is visiting in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Baber, and attending the High School Band Clinic. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Huff, former residents of Canyon.

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

By Troy Martin

The Grand Old Party will field a slate of local candidates in county elections next year, probably for the first time in the history of Randall County.

But for one factor, the Republicans probably would meet with a measure of success even on a local level. However, the county committee, headed by County GOP Chairman Neil Allen of Amarillo, plans to handpick candidates to be offered.

Allen makes no bones about this. We talked to him Tuesday about the upcoming Republican primary scheduled for next May.

He said he and the committee couldn't keep anyone wearing the Republican name tag from running in the primary. However, he said the GOP county machinery would not sanction candidates who do not meet the approval of the committee.

The wishes of the rank and file of Republicans in the county apparently are to be aborted in favor of the wishes of the committee. All but two of the committee are from South Amarillo.

Allen said the plan is being followed in order to field only qualified candidates under the banner of the GOP. He said the committee is to be the sole judge of who is qualified and primary nominees not meeting the committee's approval can expect no help from the party in the general election.

If this plan is carried out let it suffice to say that the Randall County GOP choked in infancy on the ego of its county committee.

We appreciated the work of the county commissioners Monday in giving the people of Rim Drive some pavement which we believe they deserve in their community.

Probably it was the first time in history that B.R. Jones found himself strongly supported by a South Randall County commissioner (Glenn Dowlen) in opposition to his usual sidekick C.V. Johnson.

We believe Dowlen cast a vote of conscience as a RANDALL COUNTY COMMISSIONER rather than as a south Randall County man. We think this is good. Maybe it heralds a new era.

We covered Randall County court house this week in the absence of Editor Bob Kerr. It was a real treat and the first time we'd done court house reporting since the days in Amarillo when we covered a portion of the Potter County court house beat.

We heard County Clerk Tom Lair say: "We don't get many cases on transporting liquor anymore. It's too easy for them to get liquor to the south of us now."

Bill York, city manager, says he hopes more people will come to city commission meetings in the future. Bill says the welcome mat is out and he'd like for folks to drop in at meeting time.

There's rumor running rife around the state that Congressman Walter Rogers is up for appointment to a federal judgeship--two predecessors, Gene Worley and Marvin Jones, went that route. This would leave his seat up for grabs and you can bet your bottom dollar that the Republicans will be in there battling for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Clee Pond, C. G. and Ivan, will leave on a vacation trip to scenic points of interest in New Mexico, including Albuquerque, this weekend.

Pioneer Recalls First Confederate Reunion

(Editor's note: Mrs. Worth A. Jennings, 1407 Third Ave., has been a resident of Canyon for sixty-seven years. Born Eddie Johnson Vansant to Judge James Madison and Susan J. Vansant, July 30, 1882, at Ben Franklin, Delta County, Texas, Mrs. Jennings was eleven-years-old when she came to Canyon. She relates the following experiences of the trip.)

We left Ben Franklin in April, 1894, for Canyon by way of the Indian Territory. Mr. and Mrs. Vansant, Lee, the only son, and his wife and two children; Josie, the married daughter, and her husband and son; the two younger daughters, Eddie and Gertrude; a girl friend going to visit an uncle near Canyon, and two young men who helped drive a small bunch of cattle made up the group. Lee and Josie's husband was first rented and later bought by the Vansants from the late L.G. Conner, founder of Canyon.

There were fourteen in the group, and today, only three survive, Mrs. Jennings, her sister, Gertrude, who lives in California, and a niece, Bernie, of Dallas.

In the four and one-half years the Vansants had the Victoria Hotel, named for Mrs. L.G. Conner, it was the scene of many gatherings, including weddings. Occupation was the fullest during District Court sessions when all the out-of-town lawyers and witnesses would stay and enjoy the twenty-five cent meals; hot biscuits were the specialty. At other times, cowboys, freighters, and traveling salesman were guests. Also, the surveyors for the railroad, which went through in 1898, were guests for several weeks.

One cowboy-looking guest aroused the suspicion of Mrs. Vansant because his hands looked too smooth for a cowboy's. After his departure, it was learned that he was a horse thief and was running from the law.

Canyon had a population of between one and two hundred during the middle nineties, but people would come from miles around to attend such occasions as Christmas parties held at the court house. After the Christmas tree, when gifts were exchanged, a dance was usually held in the court room. Dancing was a favorite pastime and frequently was held after church services and prayer meetings at the court house.

Community church services, with large attendance, were held in the court house at the same location as the present one. However, the building is now the Home Canyon which is two blocks west of the square. When a circuit preacher was not available, local citizens led the service.

Mrs. Jennings first attended school in Canyon where the south jr. high building now stands. The school had three rooms, but only one was used at first, as there were too few students. One teacher taught all the grades, and supervised looking after the pot-bellied coal stove. Pupils either walked or rode horses to school. Many came several miles even in severe weather. The school had a belfry with a bell that could be heard several miles on a clear day.

In the late nineties, the president of Decatur Baptist Junior College came to Canyon and recruited Mrs. Jennings, two Longs, and three Lairs to attend his school. The Panhandle offered no higher education.

Mrs. Jennings, her children, several grandchildren, and a great grandchild, four generations, have attended schools in Canyon.

Most vivid of her recollections are the first train, an engine and one flat car, which came to Canyon in 1898; and the first Confederate reunion held in 1900. The reunion was held annually for several years and usually lasted a week; filled with speeches, singing, dancing, and other entertainment.

Mrs. Jennings and the late Worth A. Jennings were married in December, 1901. Mr.

Jennings, an early-day XIT cowboy, served Randall County as sheriff from 1911 to 1920, and as County Judge from 1920 to 1924. Mrs. Jennings' father also served as County Judge from 1904 to 1906. Mr. Jennings passed away December 7, 1949. Of the Jennings' eight children, seven are still living. They are Kathleen, now Mrs. Cecil Hagood, Floydada; Maxine, now Mrs. I. Clyde Davis, Los Cruces, N.M.; Ruth, now Mrs.

Vester Hill, Spearman; Worth A., Jr., Canyon; Joe, Lorenzo; Lena Wade, now Mrs. Martin Phillips, Plainview, and Jack Neil of Canyon. Mrs. Jennings has ten grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren.

band each drove covered wagons pulled by mules and horses. Mr. Vansant drove a large three seated hack which had ducking curtains that rolled up and down. Also, there were four saddle horses which were eventually sold to the late John Knight in Canyon.

We had a good tent that was put up each night, and all except the young men slept on mattresses in it. The young men slept in the wagons.

Sometimes camp was made for more than one night so that time could be spent hunting or fishing. We had a good time the six weeks on the road and arrived in Amarillo in May, 1894. After two weeks in Amarillo receiving our household goods, which had been shipped by train, and gathering in supplies, we went on to Canyon. The only accommodation in Canyon large enough for the group was the Victoria Hotel, Anderson Appliance Salutes Mrs. Beth Thompson as our July Housewife of the month. Beth, her husband "Doc" and children Kem, Karla, Karen, Tom and Dave live in a lovely brick home just east of Canyon on the Palo Duro highway. One of the points we're proud to bring out about Mrs. Thompson is her statement "I like everything about Frigidaire!" She later explained that with her at work every day at the Family Business (the Buffalo Tailor Shop) the convenience and ease of operation of her Frigidaire appliances is just wonderful! Probably the proudest possession in the Thompson kitchen is the built-in cooktop shown at the left on the above picture. A major feature is that when you are through cooking it folds up at the back of the cabinet giving more work area. The Thompson's first became Frigidaire owners about 10 years ago and at present are enjoying the convenience of Frigidaire's range, French door oven, dishwasher, refrigerator, washer and dryer. In closing Mrs. Thompson says she also appreciates top notch local service found at Anderson Appliance.

DOUBLE GUNN STAMPS TUESDAY AT BELLAH'S

Haleys To Keep Dutch Student

Preparations are underway in the A.C. Haley home pending the arrival of their foster daughter, Augustina Paulina Hendrika Tempelman, August, 23, from Gouda, The Netherlands.

Ineke, as she is familiarly known, will arrive in New York aboard the S.S. Waterman, a Dutch liner. As a coincidence, this is the same ship on which Patricia Haley and her grandmother, Mrs. Clyde Warwick, traveled when they went to Europe the summer of 1955. Ineke is to be Randall County's first foreign exchange student. She is being brought to the United States under the sponsorship of the American Field Service.

Walter Juniper is chairman of the local A.F.S. Committee.

Other members are Hosea Foster, finance; Lawrence Roberts, counselor; Mrs. R. A. Neblett, home placement; Joe Gibson and J.E. Miller, school representatives, and Mrs. A.K. Knott, American exchange students.

The possibility of an exchange student for Randall County was introduced by E.E. Plank who knew of the program through a son who had a student in his home near Hereford. Others became interested, and Mrs. Edward McKay, member of the Potter County committee of the American Field Service was brought to Canyon to appear before various service clubs, and explain the requirements of such a project. This resulted in the formation of a local A.F.S. committee who felt that Randall County, and the students of Canyon High School, would benefit by this experience in international relations.

Hosea Foster, as finance chairman, immediately set out to raise the necessary $650, to guarantee the required funds for an exchange student. The girl's family will contribute an undesignated amount.

After Ineke, as an exchange student, has spent a year in Canyon, Randall County will be eligible to send an exchange student from here to a foreign country. Mrs. Knott will direct this program.

In order to qualify as foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Haley made application for an exchange student, and were interviewed by representatives of the American Field Service. Their daughter, Pat, 17, who is nearest the age of the exchange student, wrote a paper giving reasons why she thought her home would be a desirable place for an exchange student to spend a year. Mr. and Mrs. Haley gave additional information. The student is to be regarded as a member of this particular family.

Then the American Field Service began efforts to find the right student for the Haley family, one of similar background and interests. In Ineke, they chose a girl of 17, who is about the same age, the same size, and the same complexion as Pat. Both girls will be seniors at Canyon High School next year. They will graduate at the end of the school term.

Ineke comes from a family of six children, four brothers, and one sister, ranging in age from the sister who is 12 years old, to the oldest brother, who is 22, and in the armed forces. The Haleys have four children, Pat, Arthur, 15, Dennis, 13, and Becky, 8.

Art, ballet and drama are Ineke's main interests. She speaks English, French, Dutch and German. An exchange student is required to speak the language of her host country, and Ineke is well prepared to converse with her foster family after studying English for five years.

Since Ineke is a Roman Catholic, and the Haleys are members of the First Methodist Church, they expect to gain tolerance and understanding by the experience. Ineke's father is a teacher of German, and he has had training as a journalist. The foster father is owner of Haley's Printing and Office Supply, and has also been a journalist.

The exchange student will be placed under certain restrictions while she is here. She will not be permitted to make speeches before December 1. Her allowance from the American Field Service for personal expenses such as cokes, movies and personal needs will be $14 each month. Various school organizations will take care of her class photograph and class ring. She will not be allowed to accept money in any amount from individuals, but will be permitted to accept gifts of appreciation after making speeches and public appearances.

The student will not be permitted to drive a car. She cannot hitch hike, and she cannot ride in a car driven by another teenager without the foster parents' permission. She can travel overnight only when accompanied by a foster parent and can fly only on commercial airlines.

The exchange student is sent to the United States to learn the customs and culture of the country. She is required to return to The Netherlands at the end of the school year, and the American Field Service advises foster parents not to urge the student to return to the States for college, or any other reason. They believe it leads, in most instances, to unhappiness for the student.

About June 25, Ineke will leave Canyon by chartered bus, along with other exchange students of the region. They will be taken on a sightseeing tour to points of interest enroute to New York, where they will board ships to return to their homes in several foreign lands.

Thugs Hit Snag On Junior High Strong Box

Burglars made an attempt to open a safe at the junior high school building sometime Friday night but left empty-handed.

L.D. Caldwell, chief of police, said the dial and knobs were broken off the safe but the thieves were unable to open it.

Pencil machines located in the building hallway were opened but no money was reported missing.

Caldwell said the burglars entered the building through a window on the ground floor.

TOP DRIVE-WAY SERVICE PLUS REPAIR WORK AT ZAC'S HUMBLE

This week the Canyon News Staff visited with Blake Zachry at Zac's Humble Service located at the intersection of 4th Ave and 287 hwy here in Canyon. One of the most interesting things about his business is the fact that a mechanic is on duty from 7 a.m. til 7 p.m. each day. On looking into his background, we noticed that during the past 10 years before going into business for himself Mr. Zachry was at times associated with McAtee & Warwick Automotive Service and the Bruce Blackaby Ford Co. as a mechanic. He is fully qualified for both major and minor tune-ups, which he specializes in and also light repair work such as on grease seals, clutches, wheel bearing, fuel pumps, etc. In addition a complete brake service department is maintained. Out on the driveway and in the wash room and on the lube rack his fast, expert service has made his name a local by word. Zac reminds us that he gives Western Bonus Stamps with every purchase, double on Wednesdays. Edgar Montgomery, Billie Sizemore, and Buddy Stevens fill out the complete crew. In closing he said "Our service may not be the fastest in the country, but it certainly is the most personalized," and all your business is appreciated!

KEEPING UP WITH THE ARTS

Mary Caballero

It seems to me that we are taught all of our life to appreciate the good accomplishments of others.

Last week an Amarillo man, Al Dewlen, won for the second time a $10,000 award for his novel "Twilight of Honor", which will be published as the prize selection for the book-of-the-month to be released in December. His first prize winning selection was "The Night of the Tiger" which came out in 1956. He also has published another novel "The Bone Pickers".

Dewlen has received very little acclaim in his home town for his accomplishment.

The theme of the book is about the code of ethics one should live by. The main character in the story must decide that his one code of ethics must be both for his personal use and his business dealings. Now he could have written a "sensational", a science-fiction with monsters, or murder story, but he seems to have chosen a better theme.

Wouldn't it be worthwhile to our young writers to see that we pay more respect to our local people who make a success of their writing or other accomplishments. The beginner would gain a certain amount of encouragement and enthusiasm for the future if occasionally they would read about the good awards of hard work and the final outcome of writing a good book or reaching the top in some other endeavor.

Talent is a bad word. If a word could be found to replace it, it would be wonderful. I think sharp imagination might be a good word to use. Everyone has imagination. If we can learn to use this imagination early enough, we will never be at a loss for new ideas, or have to make an excuse, such as "I have no talent".

Art Oddity For the Week... "There's an awful lot of jumping on the bandwagon today in abstract painting...but any kind of painting can be good...there are no rules but if more people were familiar with all kinds of painting they could see the bad painting today..." Most modern painters are he to time saving and make big abstractions and they're called "action painting". By using fast drying paint and with a tape frame, a guy can whip out a one man show in the morning and be all set to serve tea at the afternoon opening."--from The Potboiler.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by JOHN BRAZZIL

Dr. Alex Pope, Agronomist, with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Bushland would like to work with a Randall County farmer on a wheat fertilizer trial test on irrigated wheat. Dr. Pope would work closely with this cooperator and help evaluate results. If there is an irrigation farmer in Randall who would like to cooperate with the station in this interesting work please call me within the next few days.

The Bushland Station has pure seed of wheat and barley varieties available for field demonstrations. Most of the new varieties are available in 10 pound lots. If you are interested in having a variety demonstration on your farm please give me a call. The seed must be picked up at the station before August 1.

R.J. Hodges, Extension Service Agronomist, has prepared a list of small grains recommended for the Texas Panhandle. This list gives the best varieties of wheat, oats, and barley for this area. Recommended wheat varieties are: Tascosa, Concho, Crockett, Bison, and Kaw (A new one). Acceptable varieties are: Comanche, Ponca, Aztec, Westar, Improved Triumph, or Triumph, and Wichita.

True winter type barley varieties recommended here are: Kearney, Ward, and Reno. Other varieties that carry some winter hardiness but are not true winter barleys are: Rogers, Harbine, Cordova, and Wintex.

Cordova and Wintex are recommended spring barley varieties.

Fall seeding of oats in the Panhandle is often hazardous. The best varieties to use are: Mustang, Broncho, Wintok and Cimarron. New Nortex has less hardness than the recommended varieties. Spring varieties include Alamo, Mustang, New Nortex, and Cimarron.

All these small grain varieties have been tested in Texas by the Agricultural Experiment Stations. New ones are thoroughly tested before they are recommended.

A new Livestock Marketing Handbook has been released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This handbook contains information on the U.S. Grades of Slaughter cattle, the average dressing weight of the many grades, and a shrink table designed to help you figure a better marketing deal with your buyer. An ample supply of these small handbooks is available at the extension office in the courthouse.

Cops Round Up Mag Salesmen

City policemen held a roundup of sorts Friday.

Instead of cattle the force was herding magazine salesmen into corporation court.

Three of the men were fined $20 each. One of the crew escaped arrest.

One man who was approached by one of the salesmen said the "salesman" told him he was a college student selected by a professor to help finance his education.

THE RAMS have always given plenty of opposition to any team with which they have been fielded. They are from left in the front row Sheldon Johnson, Stanley Foster, Max Bosley, Larry Daniel and Joel Stritzel. In the back row are Tommy Tucker, Lacye Comer, John Lewis, Floyd Flow, Lynn Salmon, Randy Stark and Rick Wester.

City Seeks Control Of Stray Dogs, Cats

City Manager Bill York and Police Chief L.D. Caldwell have been assigned by the city commission to study the cost of establishing some sort of control over stray dogs and cats. Commissioner George Ritter said he has had at least 25 complaints during the past few days about stray dogs and cats. York estimates that initial cost of such a program would run between $7500 and $10,000.

"I think we need some administrative approach to the problem," Ritter declared.

The commission also turned down a request to locate four head of cattle inside the city limits.
